

SOME HIGH SPOTS IN SENATOR HARDING'S SPEECH ACCEPTING THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENT

I believe in party government as distinguished from Personal Government.

No man is big enough to run this great republic. There never has been one.

Our party means to hold the heritage of American nationality unimpaired and unsundered.

I promise you formal and effective peace so quickly as a republican congress can pass its declaration for a republican executive to sign.

I can speak unreservedly of the American aspiration and the republican committal for an association of nations.

I wish the higher wage to abide, on one explicit condition—that the wage-earner will give full return for the wage received.

We inflated in haste, we must deflate in deliberation.

We promise the prevention of unreasonable profits; we challenge profiteering with all the moral and legal powers of the government.

The republican party was founded by farmers; our platform is an earnest pledge of renewed concern for this most essential and elemental industry.

I believe in a great merchant marine.

I believe in a navy ample to protect it.

I believe in a small army but the best in the world.

I believe this government should make its liberty bonds worth what its patriotic citizens paid for them.

I believe in law enforcement. If elected I mean to be a constitutional president.

It is my earnest hope, my sincere desire that the one needed state vote be quickly recorded in affirmation of the right of equal suffrage.

Marion, O., July 22.—In his speech accepting the Republican nomination for the presidency, delivered here today by Senator Warren G. Harding, Mr. Harding said in part:

"Let me be understood clearly from the very beginning. I believe in party sponsorship in government, I believe in party government as distinguished from personal government, individual, dictatorial, autocratic or what not. In a citizenship of more than a hundred millions it is impossible to reach agreement upon all questions. Parties are formed by those who reach a consensus of opinion. It was the intent of the founding fathers to give to this republic a dependable and enduring popular government, representative in form, and it was designed to make political parties not only the preserving sponsors but also the effective agencies through which hopes and aspirations and convictions and conscience may be translated into public performance.

"No man is big enough to run this great republic. There never has been one. Such domination was never intended. Tranquility, stability, dependability—all are assured in party sponsorship, and we mean to renew the assurances which were rendered in the cataclysmal war.

"Our first committal is the restoration of representative popular government, under the constitution, through the agency of the Republican party. Our vision includes more than a chief executive, we believe in a cabinet of highest capacity, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates, in whose councils the vice-president, second official of the republic, shall be asked to participate.

"We Republicans of the senate, conscious of our solemn oaths and mindful of our constitutional obligations, when we saw the structure of a world super-government taking visionary form, joined in a becoming warning of our devotion to this republic.

"Our party means to hold the heritage of American nationality unimpaired and unsundered.

"The world will not misconstrue. We do not mean to hold aloof. We do not mean to shun a single responsibility of this republic to world

Senator Lodge Makes Notification Speech

(By Associated Press)

Marion, O., July 22.—The Republican campaign attained full speed ahead today, with the formal notification here of Warren G. Harding, the party's nominee for the presidency.

The notification ceremonies, which brought to Marion most of the big leaders of the party and many thousands of Harding enthusiasts included an acceptance speech by Senator Harding interpreting the Chicago platform and declaring the principles on which he expects the campaign to be fought.

His declarations were expected to strike a keynote giving tone to the argument of Republican workers throughout the nation in the season of political debate ushered in by notification day.

The acceptance speech came at the end of a long program in which high pitch enthusiasm ruled the day, as the visiting delegations marched on the Harding residence in unbroken succession.

At 7 o'clock in the morning, a noisy aggregation of Marion citizens that looked like half the town led off with a demonstration that set a mark for the out of town folks to shoot at.

To their howling acclaim the Senator played a leading part in a flag raising pulling the Stars and Stripes to the top of the weather-beaten McKinley flag pole, sent here a few days ago from Canton.

Delegation after delegation, with bands blaring and colors flying, followed up to the Harding front porch as thirty special trains and thousands of automobiles unloaded their contribution to the notification crowds.

Marion was dressed within an inch of its life for its debut in the great affairs of the nation and was bubbling over with eagerness to make the day a smashing success.

Business was adjourned, and partisanship was forgotten as Republican and Democrat joined in acknowledging the honor that had come to one of their neighbors.

DECISION TONIGHT ON RAIL AWARDS MAY BE FAVORABLE

The purple, white and gold of the woman suffrage cause early made its appearance in the gathering crowds, but a plan of the women to picket the notification ceremonies was abandoned. Will H. Hays, the national chairman, was the presiding officer at the notification. The program included an invocation by Bishop William P. Oldham, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the formal notification speech by Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, chairman of the notification committee, and Senator Harding's response.

Chicago, July 22.—A decision tonight on whether the 18 railroad unions will accept the $600,000,000 wage award was promised today by T. E. Shepherd, when the brotherhood chiefs resumed their conference.

Union officials refused to comment on reports that they were divided 7 favoring acceptance 7, a referendum with recommendations of acceptance, two a referendum with out recommendation, one flat rejection of the award and one undecided. Privately they said a referendum seemed the only possible course.

If a vote by all union members is ordered the award will be tentatively accepted so that the men will get the increased pay for this month and the back pay from May 1st, as provided in the decision.

A referendum will take at least 30 days.

"The menacing tendency of the present day is not chargeable wholly to the unsettled and fevered conditions caused by war. The manifest weakness in popular government lies in the temptation to appeal to grouped citizenship for political advantage. There is no greater peril. The constitution contemplates no class and recognizes no group. It broadly includes all the people, with specific recognition for none."

A state of inadequate transportation facilities, mainly chargeable to the failure of governmental experiment, is losing millions to agriculture. It is hindering industry, it is menacing the American people with a fuel shortage little less than a peril.

"In all sincerity we promise the prevention of unreasonable profits, we challenge profiteering with all the moral force and the legal powers of government and people, but it is fair, aye, it is timely, to give reminder that law is not the sole corrective of our economic ills."

"Let us call to all the people for thrift and economy, for denial and sacrifice if need be, for a nation-wide drive against extravagance and luxury, to a recommitment to simplicity of living, to that prudent and normal plan of life which is the health of the republic."

"The Republican party was founded by farmers, with the sensitive conscience born of their freedom and their simple lives. These founders sprang from the farms of the then Middle West."

"I believe in a navy ample to protect it, and able to assure us dependable defense."

"I believe in a small army, but the best in the world, with a mindfulness for preparedness which will avoid the unutterable cost of our previous neglect."

"I believe this government should make its Liberty and Victory bonds worth all that its patriotic citizens paid in purchasing them."

"I believe the tax burden imposed for the war emergency must be revised to the needs of peace, and in the interest of equity in distribution of the burden."

"I believe the Negro citizens of America should be guaranteed the enjoyment of all their rights."

"I believe there is an easy and open path to righteous relationship with Mexico. It has seemed to me that our undeveloped, uncertain and infirm policy has made us a culpable party to the governmental misfortunes of that land."

"I believe in law enforcement. If elected I mean to be constitutional president, and it is impossible to ignore the constitution, unthinkable to evade the law, when our every commitment is to orderly government. People ever will differ about the wisdom of the enactment of the law—there is divided opinion respecting the eighteenth amendment and the laws enacted to make it operative—but there can be no difference of opinion about honest law enforcement."

The womanhood of America always its glory, its inspiration and the potent, uplifting force in its social and spiritual development, is about to be enfranchised. Insofar as congress can go, the fact is already accomplished. By party edict, by my recored vote by personal conviction I am committed to this measure of justice. It is my earnest hope, my sincere desire that the one needed state vote be quickly recorded in the affirmation of the right of equal suffrage and that the vote of every citizen shall be cast and counted in the approaching election.

"With an unalterable faith and in a hopeful spirit, with a hymn of service in my heart, I pledge fidelity to our country and to God and accept the nomination of the Republican party for the presidency of the United States."

SAYS RAILROAD CROSSINGS WILL SOON BE BUILT

Service Director Tracey Announces Arrangements for Speedy Work on Bad Crossings of B. & O.

B. & O. Engineer Here For Conference Wednesday And Agreement is Reached

The long delayed rebuilding of the B. & O. crossings in this city is about to be realized, according to Service Director Tracey, who states that as result of a conference with the B. & O. Engineer, Wednesday, arrangements have been made for rebuilding the crossings within the next thirty days.

Service Director Tracey states that the crossings on South North street will be completed by the Andrews Asphalt Paving Company, and that the B. & O. has agreed to rebuild the other crossings within thirty days.

The promise of action comes after several years of protest and complaint on the part of local citizens passing over the bad crossings, and speedy carrying out of the plans announced by the B. & O. will meet with general approval, particularly as the road started the repairs some months ago and then left the scene after completing repair of one track crossing.

Mr. Tracey announces that asphaltic concrete will be used in repairing the crossings, with finish of regulation asphalt.

What's The Idea

The present attitude of the dry forces—or rather the dry leaders who are attempting to bring the rank and file of the dry voters of the nation to their way of thinking—seems entirely illogical and inexplicable on any ground save selfish desire to hold positions which pay good salaries plus liberal traveling expenses.

Prohibition has become a part of the existing fundamental law of the land—the issue is settled and the only possible function, it seems for the dry advocates is to keep it settled and keep the politicians from again making it an issue in politics.

The only way nation-wide prohibition could be made an issue in politics would be for some party to advocate a repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the constitution. There certainly is no logical reason for the prohibition advocates to keep on insisting for something we already have and to make an issue of that which, once a proposal, has become established fact.

It is well, of course, for the old officers of the Anti-Saloon league to remain on guard and see that no attack is launched on the citadel they have won and if such an attack is launched to resist it.

There might be some reason in watching congressional elections with a view to preventing the election of members of the House pledge to repeal the Volstead enforcement law but this heckling of presidential nominees and the threat to nominate a prohibition ticket is a patent attempt by the leaders to remain in the light of publicity and to keep the salary checks following along in regular order.

The Question of Doubt

The leaders of the railroad workers organizations, although it is understood generally that they are empowered to call a general strike in case the wage award of the United States Labor Board failed to meet with their approval, have wisely concluded to refer the matter of acceptance or rejection of the award to the men themselves—a referendum vote.

It is generally conceded now in the light of facts disclosed and reasons announced in support of the award by the Railroad Labor Board that the men were entitled to an increased wage. There wages have not kept pace with living costs, but the enormous total cost which the award adds to the pay rolls of the already overburdened railroads causes the people to be apprehensive for the future.

While the railroad men want more and may have been, looking to living costs alone, entitled to more of an increase, yet there is vastly more than that one comparison to consider.

It is inevitable that the public must pay the increase and that public, to pay the increase, must have the aid of the railroads in commerce and trade. If the burden assumed is greater than the public can carry then not only is the public injured but the railroad men themselves are denied even a portion of that increase which they sought.

It is after all the public whose referendum on the wage award might be considered in doubt.

There should, in view of all the circumstance, be no doubt about the action of the employees.

The award is one of exceeding liberality so far as the public and the railroads are concerned.

The only doubtful question is can the railroad and the public tote the load.

More Like It

Great Britain and France have presented an ultimatum to Soviet Russia warning the Lenine Government that, if the armistice proposals are not accepted at once and the warfare against Poland stopped, they will assist the Poles with all their forces and in every possible way.

That ultimatum should be enforced to the letter and in the spirit which justifies its issuance.

For nearly two years now since the world war was ended with the signing of the armistice, the people of the Allied nations have been waiting for the announcement of a definite policy regarding Russia, and the enforcement of some plan which will either check the attacks of Bolshevik Russia against Poland and, in fact, on every government on earth or give publicity to the facts which warrant the welcoming of Soviet Russia into the society of nations either as a full member of the diplomatic circle or as a probationer among the trading nations of the world.

It is time for something definite, in policy and action, toward Russia and the ultimatum issued gives more of promise than any occurrence since Russia adopted Bolshevism in lieu of government.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE BOBOLINK

There's something in the apple blossom,
The greening grass and bobolink's song,
That wakes again within my bosom
Feelings which have slumbered long
As long, long years ago I wandered,
I seem to wander even yet,
The hours the idle schoolboy squandered,
The man would die ere he'd forget.
O hours that frosty eld deemed wasted,
Nodding his gray head towards my brooks,

I dearer prize the lore I tasted
With you, among the trees and brooks,
Than all that I have gained since then
From learned books or study-withered men.

Nature, my soul was one with thine,
And, as a sister by a younger brother
Is loved, each flowing to the other,
Such love for me was thine.
O wert thou not like loving mother
With sympathy and loving power to heal,

'Gainst whose throbbing heart my head I'd lay
And moan my childish sorrows all away,
Till calm and holiness would o'er me steal
Was not the golden sunset a dear friend?

Found I no kindness in the silent moon,
Amid green trees whose tops did bend and sway,
Low singing evermore their pleasant tune?
Felt I no heart in dim and silent woods—
No loved one's voice in lonely solitudes?

SELECTED
TO CARRY
DRY BANNER

Commoner is Chosen By Acclamation to Head Dry Party Ticket in Face of His Assertion that He Would Decline Honor.

(By Associated Press)

Lincoln, Nebraska, July 21.—William Jennings Bryan was nominated by acclamation as the Prohibition Party's presidential nominee at the National convention today.

The nomination after a resolution "tendering" him the position of standard bearer had brought out the fact in debate that he had telegraphed friends here that he "could not accept."

ACTION UNEXPECTED

Nominations were not scheduled until Friday. The nomination came after a stampede of the delegates which was started by the resolution of W. G. Calderwood of Minnesota "tendering" Mr. Bryan the leadership and asking him to reply promptly to the convention whether he would accept.

Attempts to table this resolution onup resulted in an hour's recess, during which its opponents, led by Clinton N. Howard, of New York, urged Charles Bryan, brother of the nominee to make public communication he was known to have confirming Mr. Bryan's attitude.

DIDN'T WANT IT

This brought out the fact that a proposed stampede had resulted in Mr. Howard sending a telegram to Mr. Bryan asking if he would accept the nomination and that the Nebraskan had replied saying he would decline.

Charles Bryan sent a letter to the convention after it reconvened urging that it reject the resolution and saying that Mr. Bryan's friends would oppose his acceptance.

Speakers then charged that secret conferences between delegates, and Charles Bryan had been held in the last twenty-four hours with the apparent object of preventing Mr. Bryan's nomination on the ground that he did not want to be named.

The fact that these conferences had not been made public seemed to anger many delegates and speech after speech favoring the Calderwood resolution followed, until it was adopted with only six dissenting votes out of the more than 200 delegates present.

A Gate That Solves All Gate Problems—

It swings freely either way. It can be locked open or shut—simply releasing the Trip-Grip Lock allows the swing end of the gate to rest on the ground. If the gate post leans, you can adjust the "Can't-Sag" Adjustable Gate to swing horizontally. It can be hung on the side of a hill and it will work just as well as on level ground.

It requires practically no repairs. It is made of an ideal combination of wood and steel double bolted firmly together—no nails or screws to pull out, allowing the gate to sag or fall apart.

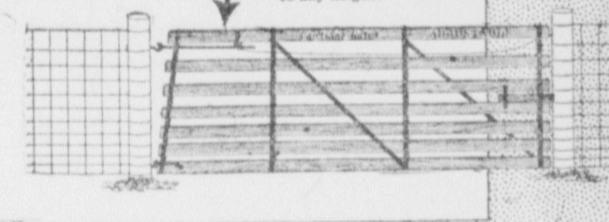

All joints are watertight—no place where water can enter and rot the wood.

Simply Worn Out

How Many Women Are Like This?

Can anything be more wearing for women than the ceaseless round of household duties? Oh! the monotony of it all—work and drudge; no time to be sick; tired, ailing, yet cannot stop. There comes a time when something "snaps" and they find themselves "simply worn out," and to make matters worse, have contracted serious feminine disorder which almost always follows the constant overtaxing of a woman's strength.

Then they should remember that there is no remedy like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—the experience of these two women establishes that fact:

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my baby I had organic trouble. My doctor said it was caused by too heavy lifting and I would have to have an operation. I would not consent to an operation and let it go for over a year, having my sister do my work for me as I was not able to walk. One day my aunt came to see me and told me about your medicine—said it cured her of the same thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own housework, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for other people. I still take a bottle of Vegetable Compound every spring for a tonic. I recommend your medicine to others who have troubles similar to mine and you can use my letter if you wish."—Mrs. PAUL PARRISH, 1325 Stone St., Sandusky, Ohio.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

More than a score of people gathered at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Vlerehome, on North street Wednesday evening. It was the occasion of Mr. Vlerehome's seventy-fourth birthday, and a number of auto loads of his old time friends and farmer neighbors of New Holland came over to remind him that he had passed another milestone on the journey of life and to join with him in celebrating the event. Mr. Vlerehome was peacefully and without a suspecting thought, enjoying the evening when the company, unannounced, filed into his home.

The victim of the surprise could hardly at first realize whether he was in the midst of a gang of "hold up" men or a mob that had invaded his home, or that he was living back in the days when he was a soldier in the Civil War, and the "rebels" were working a night attack on his camp. At first he was undecided whether to "make a charge" or call the police, but when he recognized the smiling faces of his old time friends, soon regained his composure, and joined in making the evening one of pleasure to all present.

Refreshments of cake, ice cream and coffee were served on the lawn beautifully lighted with Japanese lanterns in the rear of the home.

It was a late hour when the guests after wishing their host many more happy birthdays returned to their homes.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Cash Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Ansell Kirk, Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Kaler, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran and daughter, Blanche, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Geoley, Mrs. Dick Morgan, Mrs. Emma Mouser, Mrs. Hattie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jamison and Rev. G. E. Groves.

An exceptionally interesting meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church with nearly fifty women in attendance, was held at the home of Mrs. Carey Persinger Wednesday afternoon, with the assisting hostesses Mesdames Robert Howat, Regina U. Staubus, Marion Dunlap, Towalt, W. Klever, Charles Gaze, Harry Roberts O. C. Kibler, John Campbell, Thompson, Miss Etta McHenry.

The home was delightfully cool and fragrant with garden flowers, a large bowl of pink and yellow snap dragons in the living room especially admired.

Mrs. Austin E. Hopkins, president, was in charge of the devotionals and Mrs. Regina U. Staubus program leader.

The two papers for the afternoon were splendid, the first given by Miss Alta Sprenger on "The Year in Retrospect" dealt with the importance of medical work in Alaska, and among the Indians and our own people in Kentucky this form of service committed mostly to the women. The work of education has been taken up the day school and the boarding school are proving very successful, the latter teaching the young children along all lines. Miss Sprenger also spoke of the great increase in the growth along missionary lines.

Miss Mary Persinger interspersed the two papers with a beautiful vocal solo, accompanied at the piano by her sister, Miss Helen.

Mrs. J. T. Tuttle's paper was entitled "The Program of Church Union in China." She said that most of the changes in China have occurred since 1900, strong union schools of various kinds have been organized. Union evangelistic campaigns have been carried on and woman is fast acquiring her proper place. Chinese Christians realize the vast responsibility that is being placed upon them. Mrs. Staubus conducted questions and answers on the Orientals in the United States, which were followed by a pleasantly social hour with refreshments.

Mr. William M. Campbell and daughter, Miss Virginia, have issued invitations for a dance which promises to be one of the notable affairs of the season in younger society circles.

The invitations, handsomely embossed with the Campbell crest read: "The Campbell Clan want you to come and do the Camel Walk at Oaklawn Park Pavilion on Wednesday night, July twenty-eight nineteen hundred and twenty eight o'clock."

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Church was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. J. A. Londerman in Clinton avenue Wednesday afternoon, a delightful social hour with dainty refreshments closing the afternoon's program.

Thirty-five members were in attendance. With the addition of seven new members to the roll call the total enrollment now numbers ninety-nine.

Mrs. L. A. Mark, the president led the devotionals and conducted the business session at which time plans for booths at the Fall Festival were discussed.

The long residence of Mr. Leslie Coleman and family in this city before locating in their present home in Indianapolis, lends added interest to the following account of the daughter's wedding:

"The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Coleman was the scene of a pretty June wedding Saturday afternoon, June the 26th, when their daughter, Prudence Paula Coleman, and John William Schmalz were married by the Rev. T. W. Grafton. The room was decorated with flowers and an altar of palms and ferns arranged before the fireplace. The attendants were Dorothy and Millicent Coleman, sisters of the bride, as maid of honor and ring bearer; Miss Doreen MacEnaney, bridesmaid; Dorothy Jane Mallow, cousin of the bride, flower maid; Elvin Vliet, best man, and Ray Browder, usher. The bride was given away by her father, Daniel Stage played the wedding music. The bride wore French organdie over satin, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor wore light blue organdie, with hat to match, and carried pink roses. The bridesmaid was in peach pink organdie, and wore a corsage bouquet of lavender and pink sweet peas. Little Millicent Coleman wore yellow organdie, with a sash of tulle, and carried the ring in a lily surrounded by white and yellow daisies. Dorothy Jane Mallow wore white printed georgette crepe, and scattered rose petals from a French basket tied with rose-colored ribbons. A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Schmalz leaving immediately after for a two week's lake trip. They will be at home after July 15, with the bride's parents. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. L. A. Hyer, grandmother of the bride, and Miss Alice Coleman, an aunt of Washington Court House, Ohio, and Mrs. Roy Greyson Mallow and daughter Dorothy Jane, of Washington Court House, Ohio."

The bride's parents gave an elaborate pre-nuptial dinner the evening before the wedding.

The regular meeting of the Sugar Grove W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ada Manual on the Sabina pike, brought together twelve members and seven visitors for a very enjoyable program. Mrs. Elva Post, Mrs. Augusta Haines and Mrs. Mattie McCoy read excellent papers, and Mrs. Juanita Nisely gave two charming readings. Mrs. Gladys Manual and Mrs. Emma Burdette who were also hostesses assisted Mrs. Manual in serving delicious refreshments.

The Wednesday Social Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Ellis in Leesburg avenue, with Mrs. Harry Hyer assisting hostess. Every club member was present. In an entertaining contest, Mrs. C. W. Shough won the prize.

Mrs. Ellis served dainty refreshments before the afternoon's close.

Twenty-four women of the Ladies Aid Society of Union Chapel of Yatesville, were hospitably entertained at the home of Mrs. David Whiteside, corner of Dayton and Madison avenues Wednesday.

The afternoon was one of much pleasure, the women especially enjoying the opportunity of meeting with Mrs. Whiteside, who formerly resided at Yatesville. There was a short program including piano solos by Mrs. J. A. Wissler and Mrs. Whiteside, and a recitation by Bernice Durlinger.

Mrs. Whiteside served tempting refreshments, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Looker, Gladys and Blossom McCrea. Sweet peas in attractive arrangements were used in decorating the rooms.

There never was a more enjoyable picnic than that of the Mothers' Club and their families at Cedar Hurst Wednesday afternoon.

The members of this club carried their ability to do things into the picnic arrangements and the supper included every picnic delicacy.

There were thirty-five "grown-ups" and the same number of children and everyone had a royal good time in outdoor sports and visiting.

FAITHFUL DOG BLOWN TO BITS MASTER ESCAPES

Some dynamiting of fish, according to fish and game protectors, has been occurring near Williamsport and arrests have been made.

In connection with the arrests a story is being told of how one man got the scare of his life, lost a valuable dog, and declares that never again he will undertake to get fish except in the regulation way of hook and line.

The story reaching this city is to the effect that a resident of, or near Williamsport, attached a time fuse to a pound of dynamite and hurled it into the waters of Paint creek, then started for safety.

Looking back as he hurried from the bank of the creek he saw his faithful dog swimming toward the point where the sputtering fuse had disappeared. He yelled to the dog, but the dog gave no heed to his call. Then he stood rooted to the spot as the dog hunted for and located the package of dynamite and started to swim back to carry it to his master, when the frightened man, realizing what might happen, fled at top speed, pursued by the dog and the dynamite. He reached Williamsport shortly after a tremendous explosion had rocked the air. The dog failed to arrive.

AUTO DISAPPEAR THEN REAPPEAR WITH NEW PAINT

Two or three local business men have been kept guessing for several days as result of the mysterious disappearance of their autos from in front of their places of business.

The first business man to miss his car—a machine of well known and popular make—was on the verge of notifying the police when friends persuaded him to await developments. He waited. A few days elapsed and the machine reappeared in front of his place of business with a new coat of glossy paint which resulted in the owner looking for distinguishing marks before finally claiming ownership.

At about the time the first car reappeared another machine of the same make owned by another business man just as mysteriously disappeared.

So far the second car has not reappeared, and it is broadly hinted that when it is returned to the owner, with a new coat of paint, that camouflage paint such as used by the battleships during the war, may be added as an after thought.

However, friends of the owner of the machine insist that the camouflage will render the car far from invisible.

FILLING STATION SITE ALMOST CLEAR

Contractor Hillery has almost completely removed the debris left on the corner of Fayette and Market streets after the removal of the frame structure to the rear of the Y.M.C.A. building and the razing to the ground of the brick building on the site where the Standard Oil Company plans to install a gasoline filling station.

Two basements of small dimensions are being filled up and the loose brick and refuse is being taken away.

It is understood that the filling station will be erected just as soon as the site can be cleared and will be similar to the one on West Court St.

The regular program of pictures and music will be given Saturday evening.

COULD NOT WORK FOR TWO MONTHS HAD RHEUMATISM

Marion man crippled up in his joints and muscles sore and drawn; his suffering was terrible.

Draco did him so much good that he got a bottle for a friend of his.

"I was in such bad shape from rheumatism that I had to stop work about November first and laid off for two solid months, unable to go back on the job", says Mr. Albert Powell, who resides on East Center street Marion, O.

"The rheumatism was all over my body, in every joint and muscle, I believe. My muscles were sore and hard and felt like they were drawn up. My joints ached and seemed like they were dry; every move caused intense pain and I couldn't sleep from the suffering.

"I was in such bad shape that something had to be done, so I began taking Draco, as it is spoken of so highly. I want these words published for the benefit of other sufferers. After being away from work two months, two bottles of Draco did me so much good that I am on the job every day, and my rheumatism is gone. I am getting a bottle of this grand medicine to take to a friend, who is in bad shape with rheumatism, and I feel sure it will overcome his troubles, just as it did mine."

All good druggists now sell Draco and it is highly recommended in Washington C.H. by Frank Christopher.

You are Paying a Heavy Price for a Cheap Crib

Every time you store corn or grain in a wooden crib, you lose money. Rats and mice destroy bushels of it. Grain and snow drive in and keep it damp and moldy. And there is always danger of fire and the "borrower."

COAL SHORTAGE
AT THIS TIME
IS PRONOUNCED

Local Coal Dealers See Gloomy Outlook For the Winter Coal Supply in Fayette County. Price is Highest in History.

Few Are Supplied Either in City or Rural Districts—
Rumor Insists that Coal
May Go Lower in Price.

With coal prices fully one hundred percent higher than last year and with the priority movement to the northwest staring local citizens in the face the outlook for the winter's supply of fuel for this city and community is anything but pleasant, is the opinion of a Washington dealer.

Present coal prices are on the average $10.50 to $11.50 for first grade soft coal, $8.00 and higher for second grade coal, and about $14.50 per ton for anthracite.

Last year this time Ohio coal was selling for $5.50 to $6.50 per ton and the supply was much better than it is at present. Comparison shows that the prices are fully one hundred percent higher than last July. A drop in prices is anticipated, however.

At the present time the coal shortage is worse than at any previous period and the prediction follows that coal from now on will be harder to secure than at any time last year, owing to the conditions which exist in all parts of the country.

All mines have received their instructions concerning the amount they are to contribute monthly to the northwest and this must be filled before the public demand in this section of the country is recognized.

Another solution to the coal situation, it is said, hinges on the position which will be taken by the railroad workers in accepting or disregarding the wage increase granted by the United States Railway Labor Board in case a strike is called it will mean another long tieup and a veritable coal famine during the early months is the opinion.

With the thought of a national railroad tieup vanishing this side of question has almost disappeared, but it is still causing the dealers some worry.

Farmers all over Fayette county are virtually supplied with coal for threshing purposes, but have not even started to lay in their supply for the winter, it is claimed.

In this city there has been very little coal placed in bins owing to the scarcity which has prevailed during the summer months and owing to the fact that most of the coal reaching local yards recently have been parceled out to different parts of the county for threshing.

There is one bright spot in the entire aspect, it is a hint that is given out to the effect that coal may be lower in price during the next ninety days.

But next winter it is not going to be the cost of the coal so much as the trouble to secure it, is the announcement. There is one conclusion: Fayette county and Washington citizens are going to use more wood than for many years.

Best of 22

The Eldorado Stage Co. of Los Angeles tested 22 leading makes on 12-passenger Packard buses. Not a tire was found to match the Millers in that extreme service.

Some Costly Mistakes

Men are Making on Tires

Men who buy tires on a guess, or on claims, are making some costly mistakes.

Large truck users make tests and comparisons. And the results in late years are amazing.

Hudson Taxi Co. of Detroit, for instance, made a long test on Miller Cords. And the average was 15,000 miles.

Miller dealers get hundreds to compare Miller mileage with others. And they find an increased mileage of 50 per cent to 75 per cent.

Large truck users are comparing Miller Cords, passenger type, with all others. And they are coming in large numbers to Millers.

California stage lines are using Millers after million-mile tests with many rivals.

The Way to Know

At the Miller factory over 1,000 tires yearly are worn out in tests and comparisons.

They constantly prove that Miller is the best tire built.

In extreme rear-wheel tests they require an average of 15,000 miles on Cords.

They prove that the new Miller tread outwears the best of others by 25 per cent.

Such tires should be tested by every owner of a car. See what they give you. Compare with any tire on opposite rear wheels.

Miller experts, in late years, have doubled average tire mileage. Old-time figures do not apply today.

You will fix new requirements for your tires when you try a Miller. Do it now.
